Answer the following questions. All questions are of equal value.

1. We read many texts of English Literature as the parts of our curriculum. If there is an attempt to employ the literary texts as aid for teaching the English language to the EFL learners, there must be some reasons for using the English Literary texts. Analyze the reasons, you perceive, of using the English literary texts in the EFL classroom. 10
2. We do not have similar approaches towards using a literary text in an EFL classroom. We are different among ourselves in terms of approaches. Explain the approaches of using a literary text in an EFL context. 10
3. We read literary texts of different genres. They are novel, short story, poem, drama, and essay among others. Suppose that you are an EFL teacher. You have to select a particular type of literary text for an EFL classroom. List the criteria for choosing a certain literary text in your context. 10
