

International Islamic University Chittagong
Department of Law

Final term Examination, Autumn- 2022
Program: LL.B. (Hons), Semester: 4th

Course Title: Administrative law, Course Code: Law 2201,

Time: 2.5 hours

Total Marks: 50

Answer any 5 (five) from the following questions. All are of equal values.

1. Explain which functions cannot be delegated by legislation. Make distinctions between judicial and quasi-judicial functions. 10
2. What are the Constitutional Provisions regarding Local Government? "Present local government body of Bangladesh is not effective as to the expectations of the general mass people"- Explain the statement with recommendations to strength the local government in Bangladesh. 10
3. a) Briefly discuss about the circumstances when delegated legislation may be held invalid on the ground of substantive ultra vires. 05
b) What do you understand by procedural ultra vires. 05
4. a) 'The principle of natural justice consists of the rule against bias'- Explain this statement with the analysis of various types of bias. 05
b) Illustrate the following cases where natural justice is violated or not: 2.5x2 = 05
 - i) Where one of the members of the selection committee was himself a candidate for selection
 - ii) Where an opportunity of being heard had been afforded to the person against whom an action was sought to be taken, but he did not avail himself of that opportunity.
5. a) Under what authority can Bangladesh Supreme Court exercise power of Judicial Review? 05
b) What are the vital functions of an ombudsman as per The Ombudsman Act, 1980? 05
6. 'When discretionary power is conferred on an administrative authority, it must be exercised according to law; when the mode of exercising such valid power is improper there is an abuse of the power' - Explain this statement. 10
7. Write short note on the following maxims: 5x2=10
 - a) Nemo debet esse judex in propria causa
 - b) Audi alteram partem